Internal Revenue Service

Publication 515

Cat. No. 15019L

Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities

For use in 2016

Withholding and Reporting Obligations (Other Than Forms 1042 and 1042-S Reporting)

Form 1099 reporting and backup withholding.

You also may be responsible as a payer for reporting on Form 1099 payments made to a U.S. person. You must withhold 28% (backup withholding rate) from a reportable payment made to a U.S. person that is subject to Form 1099 reporting if any of the following apply:

-The U.S. person has not provided its taxpayer identification number (TIN) in the manner required.

-The IRS notifies you that the TIN furnished by the payee is incorrect.

-There has been a notified payee underreporting.

-There has been a payee certification failure

Withholding of Tax - foreign individual In most cases, a foreign person is subject to U.S. tax on its U.S. source income. Most types of U.S. source income received by a foreign person are subject to U.S. tax of 30%. A reduced rate, including exemption, may apply if there is a tax treaty between the foreign person's country of residence and the United States. The tax is generally withheld (chapter 3 withholding) from the payment made to the foreign person.
